FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Elite Stone Group Opens Its Exclusive Calacatta Marble Branch in Dubai, Expanding Its Global Luxury Presence

Dubai, UAE — 2023 — Calacatta Marble, the official Dubai branch of the prestigious Elite Stone Group, proudly announces the opening of its new showroom and logistics hub in the heart of the UAE. This strategic expansion marks a significant milestone for the Italian luxury marble manufacturer, reinforcing its presence in one of the world's most dynamic markets for high-end real estate and design.

Positioned at the crossroads of architectural innovation and ultra-luxury development, the new Dubai branch enables Calacatta Marble to offer clients in the Middle East unprecedented access to Italian natural stone of the highest calibre, sourced exclusively from the company's own quarries.

The Only Direct Italian Marble Producer in Dubai

With its Dubai opening, Calacatta Marble becomes the only direct Italian marble producer operating in the UAE market, offering clients full transparency, uncompromising quality, and a seamless supply chain.

All materials—from rare Calacatta varieties to exclusive Elite Stone signature collections—are delivered directly from the company's quarries in Italy, ensuring authenticity, consistency, and a trusted pricing policy.

The new showroom showcases a curated selection of premium slabs, bespoke book-match compositions, onyx masterpieces, and architectural stone elements designed for luxury villas, branded residences, hospitality projects, palaces, and private collections.

A Commitment to Excellence in Craftsmanship

Speaking about the significance of the Dubai expansion, Tetyana Kovalenko, Founder of Calacatta Marble Dubai, stated:

"Establishing our presence in Dubai is a natural step in the evolution of Elite Stone's global journey. The region values true craftsmanship, authenticity, and rare materials—and this aligns perfectly with our philosophy. With this new branch, we bring the finest Italian marble directly to the Middle East, offering clients an unmatched level of selection, transparency, and personalised service."

Setting a New Standard in the Middle East Luxury Market

The opening of Calacatta Marble Dubai strengthens the brand's long-standing relationship with designers, developers, consultants, and private clients across the Gulf.

Through its on-site inventory, personalised project support, and architectural consultancy, the branch aims to set a new benchmark for luxury stone supply in the region.

The facility includes:

- A curated luxury showroom featuring signature Elite Stone collections
- A logistics hub ensuring rapid and reliable delivery across the UAE and GCC
- Expert consultation for bespoke, high-complexity projects
- Full transparency from quarry to installation
